Chassis.com is a fully integrated solution for all of your chassis management needs.

With thousands of motor carriers and hundreds of facilities registered in the system, Chassis.com has become an industry standard for all aspects of chassis management. In one single portal, chassis service providers can manage Maintenance and Repair, DVIR/DVER reporting, registering and tracking an entire fleet, and more. Using our single payment processing site, motor carriers can pay the daily rental fees assessed by the new chassis rental programs.

If you are interested in using Chassis.com services, please contact us at info@adventintermodal.com for more information.
